CACTUS AND SUCCULENT SOCIETY OF GREAT BRITAIN

(Affiliated to Royal Horticultural Society)

RULES.

RULES.

— o —

1—NAME.

The Cactus and Succulent Society of Great Britain.

2—OBJECTS.

To collate information of all kinds in respect to cacti and succulents, organize exhibitions, issue publications, take steps to create and further the interests of all cultivators of cacti and succulents.

3—MEMBERS.

Members shall be designated Honorary Members, Members, or Associates. Honorary Members may be elected at the Annual General Meeting and they shall have full rights, but shall not be called upon to pay subscriptions. Members shall have the right of voting at all General Meetings of the Society and shall receive, free of charge, all publications or notices issued by the Society except those otherwise decided upon by the Council. Associates shall not have voting rights, but shall have the right of attending, free of charge, any meeting of the Society, and shall have the right of receiving any publication or notice issued by the Society on payment of such fee as the Council may decide.

There shall be no distinction between professional and amateur members. The qualification of a member to be anyone who is interested in the objects of the Society and who pays the subscriptions and other dues required. Firms count as one member, but shall only be entitled to act as members in the person of one individual who is a member of the firm as a shareholder or who has proprietary rights. If more than one person is to receive membership rights, subscriptions must be paid in respect of the extra person or persons.

A list of names and addresses of members will be issued from time to time.

4—RESIGNATION.

Any member who decides to resign must give the Honorary Secretary three months' notice of his decision before the end of the year, otherwise the subscriptions for the ensuing year may be claimed.

5—MANAGEMENT.

(a) The property of the Society shall be vested in the Council and Officers of the Society for the time being during their term of office.

(b) The affairs of the Society shall be conducted by a Council consisting of President, Honorary Secretary, Honorary Treasurer, together with nine ordinary members, three to retire annually in rotation, but retiring members shall be eligible for re-election. Less than 50% attendance of Council meetings shall render retiring members ineligible for re-election. Ex-officio members to retire annually, but are eligible for re-election at the Annual General Meeting.
